Werribee, Point Cook, Sanctuary Lakes and more...

Must do experiences:

Werribee Park

Restored rather than re-established, Werribee Park's Historic Mansion is of superb proportions. An insight into Australia's richly diverse history the property features exquisite formal gardens and the Helen Lempriere Sculpture Walk. There are now even more reasons to visit Werribee Park, when entry fees are permanently removed on 1 July 2010.

Victoria State Rose Garden

Unwind with a leisurely stroll through the Victoria State Rose Garden - winner of the prestigious 'World Federation of Rose Societies' Award for Garden Excellence, this internationally acclaimed garden is located in the magnificent setting of Werribee Park.

Werribee Open Range Zoo

Full of amazing African animals living in an open savannah. Stay overnight with the animals - if you dare!

Werribee River meets Port Phillip Bay

With an abundance of native flora and fauna that inhabit the river and its banks ready to be explored (with care).

Point Cook Coastal Park and Marine Sanctuary

Home to over 250 fauna species and the historic Point Cook Homestead!

RAAF Museum

Recently awarded the Herald Sun People's Choice Award 2009 for Best Museum Experience. Located at the birthplace of the Australian Flying Corps and the Royal Australian Air Force.

Just 30 minutes
west of Melbourne!
